MLD-2043

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, FBIS

FROM: Chief, London Bureau

THROUGH: Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT: Monthly Report -- London Bureau -- August 1982

I. GENERAL

STAT

B. Lord Belstead, Minister of State at the Foreign Office, visited the BBC Monitoring Service on 11 August. His tour of the premises included an orientation at the dish antenna site. On 2 September BBC Governor Stuart Young was extended the same courtesies.

C. A 5% COLA was reinstituted for staffers effective 8 August.

II. OPERATIONS

A. Editorial/Monitorial

1. August began with an abortive coup in Kenya that drew heavily on the resources of EAU, whose communications were at first cut off by the country's domestic turmoil. At month's end EAU was still having to cope with curfews. It will almost certainly be a very long time before the impact of this coup attempt fades. Kenyan President Moi was still issuing warnings late in the month, for instance, against would-be subversives and criminals. There was another attempted coup, on 17 August, this time in the Seychelles, where once again the ruling regime put down the rebels in fairly short order. The last rebel was reported to have given himself up on 24 August.

2. Toward the end of the month, as the anniversary of the founding of Solidarity approached, Polish activities took over center stage, with the spotlight on a host of broadcast warnings, appeals and speeches, including those by Polish Interior Minister Kiszczak, Chairman of the Council of Ministers Jaruzelski, Politburo member Barcikowski and the Polish Episcopate. On 31 August tension reached a peak as Polish sources reported street disturbances in several major cities with water cannon and tear gas being used to disperse crowds of demonstrators. Throughout the day Polish radio and TV reported an appeal for calm made by Archbishop Glomp in Lublin. Late that day, the government's press spokesman announced that order had been restored, hundreds had been arrested and many demonstrators and militiamen injured. An Interior Ministry spokesman described the general situation as good and emphasized that there had been no strikes. For their hard work and long hours spent on Polish affairs, bureau editors earned praise from the chief of the Wire for "excellent coverage."
3. In a related development, Polish TV, at the government's suggestion, began a new series of monthly programs designed to give representatives of various social circles the opportunity to ask questions of ministers. In the first program on 28 August, the panel -- which included Deputy Premiers Obodowski and Rakowski and Trade Union Affairs Minister Ciosek -- dealt with wide-ranging questions on political and economic issues.
4. The Middle East provided bureau editors with a vast array of problems including a warming and cooling Iran-Iraq war, heavy Moscow radio, TV and press comment, several lengthy speeches by Babrak Karmal in Afghanistan and Mu'ammarr al-Qadhdhafi in Libya, the collapse of an OAU summit in Libya and a month-long move toward an Arab summit culminating on 28 August with an Arab foreign ministers meeting in Morocco preparatory to a scheduled summit in early September. In addition the Middle East Review writers had to cope with the tremendously complex story of the evacuation of Palestinians and Syrians from Beirut. From 9 to 23 August bureau editors and BBC monitors paid particular attention to Saudi media in a 2-week trial period in response to a growing interest in Saudi Arabia's enhanced power and influence in Middle East and world affairs. The exercise heightened editorial sensitivity to Saudi reportage and comment and proved most useful.
5. Coverage of the 1500 IRNA newscast was turned over to Gulf Bureau on 28 August owing to deteriorating reception in London.

-3-

6. French President Mitterrand gave a 36-minute press conference at the Elysee 17 August in which he focused on France's Middle East policy, its relationship to the PLO and the problem of combatting terrorism in France, a task he described as one of national salvation. In response to a Headquarter's advisory, the bureau filed the text of this major policy statement expeditiously.
7. At the request of LRB, the bureau sent Headquarters via Concorde the videotape of a controversial BBC TV documentary on the Philippines.
8. Another step was taken toward BBC video monitoring on 27 August, when installation was completed of a temporary video/audio link from the Portakabin to the cubicles building and an audio link to the Listening Room. It also means that in a crisis situation, the Listening Room has access to any of the many news sources available on the dish. The BBC has installed Sony video equipment (a 5630 VTR and a 20-inch monitor) in one of its Russian monitors' booths.
9. To ensure more timely processing of Soviet leadership material, on 1 August PMU assumed responsibility for scanning the republic press and processing speeches and articles by Politburo and Candidate Politburo members Alieyev, Kiselev, Kunayev, Rashidov, and Shevardnadze. In addition, PMU agreed to process reviews of books by leaders and other leadership material that might appear in the republic press. The resultant increased wordage was slight, owing to the generally lower level of Soviet press activity during August.

B. Communications

The commercial backup circuit for Nicosia that was rented beginning 1 August began to carry traffic on the 11th, with London assuming responsibility for traffic both ways by means of a manual paper tape relay. Traffic was heavy with a total of 1,897 messages from and 4,250 to Nicosia for an average of 290 a day. The Communications Section is coping well with the additional burden.

C. Technical

A major rearrangement of equipment in the Autodin room was effected by the move of the modems, associated patch panel and line test equipment into a more suitable position adjacent to the main cable terminal and patch facility.

STAT

2. Efforts were initiated to place East Berlin TV video on limited coverage to supplement existing TV audio coverage. The future of eventual coverage is still up in the air, but initial indications are that technical quality and scope of coverage are quite favorable.

3. London Bureau teletypist [ ] informally inspected [ ] commo facilities on 20 August while on private travel to Cologne.

STAT

4. ELAD linguist [ ] on 31 August during a stopover en route to Mannheim for training.

STAT

III. ADMINISTRATION

- A. Senior [ ] departed PCS to Headquarters on 1 August.
- B. Senior Editor [ ] arrived PCS 21 August.
- C. The deputy chief, assisted by the chief of PMU, interviewed and tested an Arabic/Kurdish monitor for the Gulf Bureau on 4-5 August. After evaluating test results Gulf requested London to make a conditional offer of employment.
